

ANTI RAGGING CAMPAIGN 2011

ORGANISED BY

TALUK LEGAL SERVICE COMMITTEE

AND

SREE NARAYANA INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES

HELD ON 15/10/2011 AT 9.30hrs

MINUTES

An anti- Ragging awareness meeting, organised under the aegis of Sree Narayana Institute of Medical Sciences and Taluk Legal Services Authority was held at 9.30 hrs on 15th October 2011 at the College Lecture Hall.

The meeting started with silent prayer.

Following members were present for the meeting.

- 1) Shri John K Illikkadan, , Additional District and Sessions Judge, North Paravoor.
- 2) Commodore Dr. M.J John , Principal, SNIMS
- 3) Col . A.N Ramesh, Executive Director, SNIMS
- 4) Dr. P.J Vincent , Medical Superintendent , SNIMS
- 5) Mr. Ajit Kumar P Training Manager , SNIMS
- 6) Adv. N.A. Ali, President Bar Association
- 7) Adv. Ayoob Khan Advocate, Bar Association, North Paravoor
- 8) SNIMS Faculty , Non teaching staff and students .

- Dr. M.J John, Principal of SNIMS welcomed the distinguished guests, faculty , staff members and students.
- The function was inaugurated and key note address delivered by Sri John K Illikkadan, Addl. District and Sessions Judge , N . Paravoor.
- Honorable Judge, at the outset, described the evolution of ragging from English schools and later on how it became a menace to the society and student community. Quoting actual cases, he described the seriousness of acts and how it affects students community. He also enumerated the legal clauses and its implications to the students.
- Adv. N.A Ali described in detail legal implications and need to avoid any situations which might precipitate confrontations.
- Adv. Ayoob Khan later took a class to make students aware of the implication of ragging activities.

The meeting concluded by 11.30 a.m. with a vote of thanks by Mr. Ajithkumar P

Dr. M. J John
Principal